

What would you like Christmas morning to look like? Describe it here in detail. How will you feel? Who will be positively impacted by your choices? What will you be able to do that you haven't been able to do before? Continue to think beyond Christmas morning What will this new phase of life do for you and your family moving into the new year?
_

